DEATH OF MR. C. DONOVAN, IN CALIFORNIA. This gentleman died at Sacramento City, California, on the 7th ult., of eaugrenous dropsy, superinduced by arly malignant infection, and aggravated by his own approcesse. His dissolution was attended with extratal and physical sgony. He was about 39 ordinary mental and physical sgony. He was about 39 years of sge, and a native of Ohio, though of Irish parents. Dering the late war with Mexico he was taken grisoner on the Rio Grande and sold into peonage by order of Smta Anna. A narrative of his capivity was subsequently published, under the title of "Donovan's Adventures is Mexico." In 1845-49 he exhibited in many of the Eastern States a "Panyrama of Taylor's Battles in Mexico," himself describing the picture. At one time he was proprietor and editor of the Cincinnant Message, a paper which had but a brief existence. In 1853-34 he was connected with one of the daily newspapers in Besten, which he left to proceed to California. At the time of his death he was engaged in reporting the proceedings of the Legislature for a paper in the interior.
